ANNIVERSARY

Lewis and Clark is now old enough to have a history and plenty of traditions. Every now and then, it is the belief of the Tiger Staff, the student body, and teachers can well stop and recall some significant part of the past. Such recalling may help the school do better in the present. With this idea in mind, the Tiger Staff has considered it fitting to recall an important event of forty years ago: the time when the Lewis and Clark student body first occupied its splendid new building.

Dear Bill,
you're really a good kid and I know you'll go far in your future years. It's too bad that "working" is going to ruin your weekends. Even if it does don't let it get you down. You've still got a chance with ---. If you know what I mean? I hope we can be good friends a long time so good luck to a swell kid.

As Ever

Famous Ex-President Made Speech at Cornerstone Laying

Because the old South Central high school was destroyed by fire, the new Lewis and Clark high school came into being. It was built on the location of the old building at a cost of approximately $500,000.

Plans for the new building were drawn up by Architect E. E. Rand. The inside of the building somewhat resembled the old school, as the auditorium was centrally located in both. The stage in the old school, however, was at the north end and one could go directly to the stage from the office without having to go around.

The name for the new school was decided on at a meeting held in the Oakes Cafe, a well-known Sprague Avenue restaurant. Many School Board officials thought the name South Central should be retained but others believed a name depicting the Northwest more appropriate. The name Lewis and Clark, suggested by Principal Henry M. Hart, met with immediate approval and was decided upon.

April 8, 1911, was the date set for the laying of the cornerstone, which is located at the northwest corner of the building. Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt, wearing his characteristic mustache and glasses, gave the dedication speech. Other noted people attending the ceremony and shown in the picture are Principal Hart; Senator Miles Poindexter; Governor Marion Hay; H. B. Dewey, state superintendent of schools; Bruce M. Watson, city superintendent of schools; Mayor W. W. Hindley; and C. C. Dill, who at that time was deputy prosecuting attorney.

HENRY MELVIN HART

Forty years ago Henry M. Hart was an exceedingly proud principal, for it was in the spring of 1912 that the new Lewis and Clark High School first opened its doors. During the week of April 1-8, School Board members, teachers, and students kept open house for the citizens of Spokane in connection with the dedicatory exercises of our splendid new building.

In June, 1910, the old South Central burned and from the ashes of it had arisen a new and larger building. It was Principal Hart who gave the name, Lewis and Clark, to the new school, in memory of the two famous explorers who led an expedition through this region in 1804. It has proved to be a distinctive name.

Every department was outfitted to offer the finest opportunity ever presented to a Spokane high school student. The new auditorium provided for over 1500 seats and a large concert grand piano was purchased at a cost of $1650.

On the first day of school in the new building—April 8, 1912—a national record was set. The student body, by working together with the teachers, carried out the whole process of enrollment in exactly 20 minutes. Huge bulletins gave the name of every student, his session room number, and the number of his locker. By 9 o'clock every student was in his proper room and seat. It was considered a remarkable beginning for this great new institution.

Some of the ideals of the new school were expressed as follows in a Lewis and Clark Journal editorial dated May, 1912:

"A century ago, Lewis and Clark, in their famous expedition, laid the foundation of our claim to the great Northwest, which was to become the home of a freer, simpler democracy. And today the great institution that has been named for them can continue in the destiny which they were opening up. This school can frown on cheapness and snobbery and uphold the equality of the individual. It can reflect the aims and ideals of its builders. It can preserve the atmosphere of the West and the spirit of Spokane. It can stand always for the things that are right."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN PARKER

Today—forty years after the building was completed—there sits in the principal's chair, Abraham Lincoln Parker. Appointed vice principal by Henry M. Hart in 1928, Mr. Parker became principal on July 1, 1942.

The building has been altered considerably since it was first occupied in 1912.

One of the largest organs in the area was installed in the auditorium in 1923. It is a four-manual Austin instrument with the pipes arranged on both sides of the stage.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN PARKER

In the fall of 1947 the auditorium was reconstructed and now resembles the most modern theater in design. The stage area was enlarged and the lighting modernized. Ticket booths were built in front and a public address system installed.

The boys' gym, after a minor fire in 1932, was remodeled and a better gallery was built without the running track. Later the wornout metal lockers were replaced with new wire baskets and a large fan was installed to circulate the air and improve sanitary conditions.

During the spring of 1949, a new fluorescent lighting system was installed throughout the building. The lights consist of long tubes extending from the front to the rear of the rooms and are covered with perforated metal grills which resemble "egg crates."

In 1950 a modern darkroom was built adjacent to room 330 for use by the photography classes. The main room is used for developing pictures and the two smaller rooms for loading cameras. Masonite cabinets and a double shelf encircling the main room were installed.

In 1949-50, the Home Economics department was completely remodeled. The latest equipment was installed in the kitchen and the dining room was redecorated and furnished with the latest styles.

In the spring of 1951, new trophy cases were built on each side of the auditorium. The new glassed-in cases are of modern design.

The Industrial Arts department was the last place where improvements were made. In 1951 the partition between two rooms was removed and the new room completely revamped.

WILLIAM W. TAYLOR

In 1912, a familiar figure around the school was John L. Dunn, vice principal and head of the Mathematics department. A small, plump, bald gentleman with glasses, he was sometimes called "Jerry" by the boys, a name he greatly disliked.

William W. Taylor, our present vice principal, has held this position for 10 years. He has acquired some gray hair from making and changing programs, and worrying over the conduct of certain boys, but nevertheless through all of this has kept his genial disposition.

MISS BERNADINE McCLINCY

Forty years ago, there was no counterpart to Miss Bernadine McClincy, our girls' adviser, according to the records. Why, we can only guess. Perhaps the two hundred and some girls were so well behaved, they did not need an adviser.

Miss McClincy returned this year, after a year's leave of absence, during which she attended Columbia university, where she received her Master of Arts degree in Guidance and Personnel Administration.

SENIORS

FORTY YEARS AGO

Numbering 86, the June class of 1912 had the honor of being the first to graduate from the new Lewis and Clark. President was Myron Moreland. The speakers at commencement were selected in different ways: two appointed by the principal, two elected by the class, and two through high scholarship. "Sweet Genevieve" was the graduating play, the first to be given in the auditorium. As its graduation memorial, the class made a present of 25 imported French carbon reproductions of great pieces of architecture and painting. Thus one of our corridors became known as "Cathedral corridor" because the pictures of the famous cathedrals of the world were hung there.

Dear Bill,
You want me to say something so I'll do just that. Excuse the pencil and paper. I just want to say how much I've enjoyed knowing you. Remember the time I didn't write you a note for a week? You deserved it. Well I also remember the pickle out of my sandwich. Bill, I could write more but it won't fit the page and for the crap I'm not going to write it on. I'll just say I wish you a swell next year and always have lots of luck.

Dear Bill,
It's been pretty wonderful knowing you, and I hope to know you better in the future. I think you're a pretty wonderful person.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Aside from the seniors, there were about eleven hundred students making up the other three classes when the new building was occupied in 1912. One was Nave Lein, staunch alumnus, and another was Eric Johnston, now administrator for motion pictures. While the new Lewis and Clark was being constructed, these students had gone to school in the North Central high school building. There were two sessions and two principals. It is safe to say that all South side high school students were happy to give up their North side schooling and take up work in the building which was called the "toast of the Northwest."

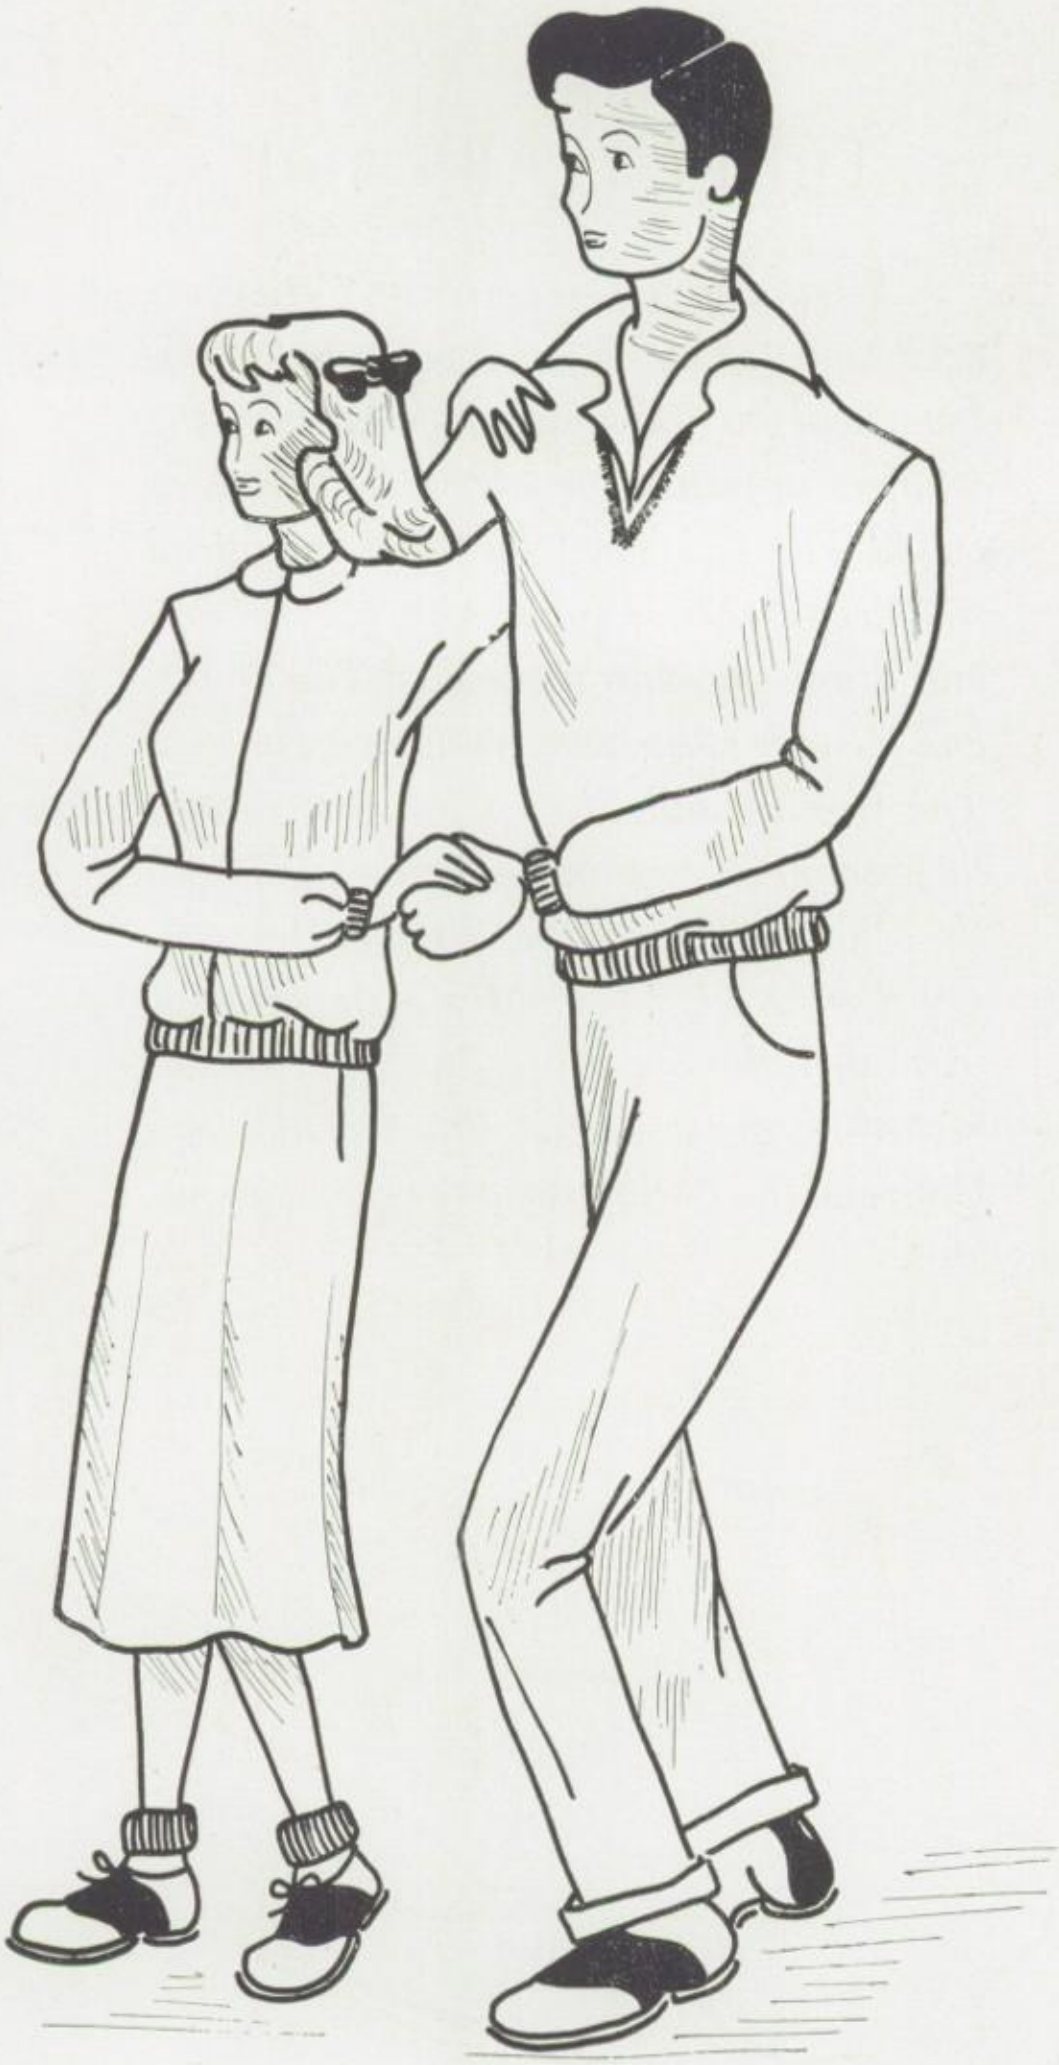
ACTIVITIES



FORTY YEARS AGO

What were L.C.'s activities forty years ago? Debate Club was going strong. Members held an interclass debate, with the winners appearing in a con. D.U.K. was called The German Club; was organized that year by Miss Corinth Crook. A literary and dramatics club was called The Quills, and Senate Club was being reorganized. The Orange and Black Club was started to promote everything in connection with the school. This was the origin of the present-day O.B.C. The Music department was much the same. For their annual concert they guest-starred the Mendelssohn Club and the Berlin trio, city organizations.

SPORTS FORTY YEARS AGO

When the new school was occupied on April 8, 1911, track and baseball seasons were just beginning. The track team lost the dual meet to North Central, but by winning the half-mile relay, it took the Annual Indoor Track Meet. The baseball team turned out to be city champions under the fine coaching of C. A. Rodman. The previous fall, the football team, composed of new, inexperienced material, ended up in the cellar. Playing their games at Natatorium park, they lost to Pullman, Coeur d'Alene, Tacoma, Wenatchee, Seattle, and Portland. The basketball team had a successful season, winning all but one game. A man named Cook was coach. Just before a trip to the Palouse country, he discovered four of the team were not up in their studies. In two days, the team was built up, coming home from their trip with three wins and no losses.

Champions Then

Coach Rodman's "green" team in the spring of 1912 took the city championship, supported by enthusiastic crowds at the games. Defeating North Central, the baseball nine boasted such outstanding players as: Watson, first baseman; Crowley, pitcher; and Lafayette, catcher.

Champions Now

The Tiger ball nine captured its 12th city championship in 1951, with a win-loss record of 9 to 0, led by the batting punch of Bill Farr and Ed Bouchee, and the pitching of Jack Spring. This was the final season under Coach Art Walther. The squad also captured the first awarding of the Spokesman-Review trophy for the feat.

1951 B Squad Captures City Championship

Kittens Develop Several Stars

The 1951 Kittens with a win-loss record of 3-5 finished low in the baseball league but otherwise produced outstanding talent for the future varsity work in such players as Bob Nelson, Jim Sargent, and Art James.

With the coaching of Gene Arger, every player on the team became more skillful and hard fighting during the season. Their best game was the last game of the season in which they downed North Central, 21-7, for the championship.

Undefeated Kittens Win City Championship

The frosh football team, coached by "Skip" Louderback, came through the 1951 season undefeated to win the city championship. Led by Hiram Clark, the Kittens rolled on to easy victories by defeating Rogers 20-0, Gonzaga 25-7, West Valley 9-0, Mead "B" squad 13-0, and North Central 21-12. "Skip" said: "All were outstanding players."

Top—A very deceptive play! Wyatt (23), Spence (29), Senna (26), Binns (38), and Gadeau (31) watch the action. Center—Wait your turn, boys! Six N.C. teammates surge forward to halt Strawick's try for yardage. Senna (26) can be seen at far left. Bottom—Gadau "crawls" for a few yards against N.C. in the final game of the year. L.C.ites are Wyatt (23), Peery (19), and Foedisch (24).

The 1952 basketball team placed second in league standings with a record of 7-2. The Tigers lost two close games to the fighting West Valley Eagles, one a play-off to decide the trip to Seattle. Bob Morris and Paul Perko were named to the first all-city team, with Art James placing on the second all-ciy team. Bill Parker received honorable mention.

Winning two and losing six, the "B" squad ended up in fourth place. Showing promise for next year are Bob Couchman, Larry English, and Henry Upton. Gene Sivertson was coach.

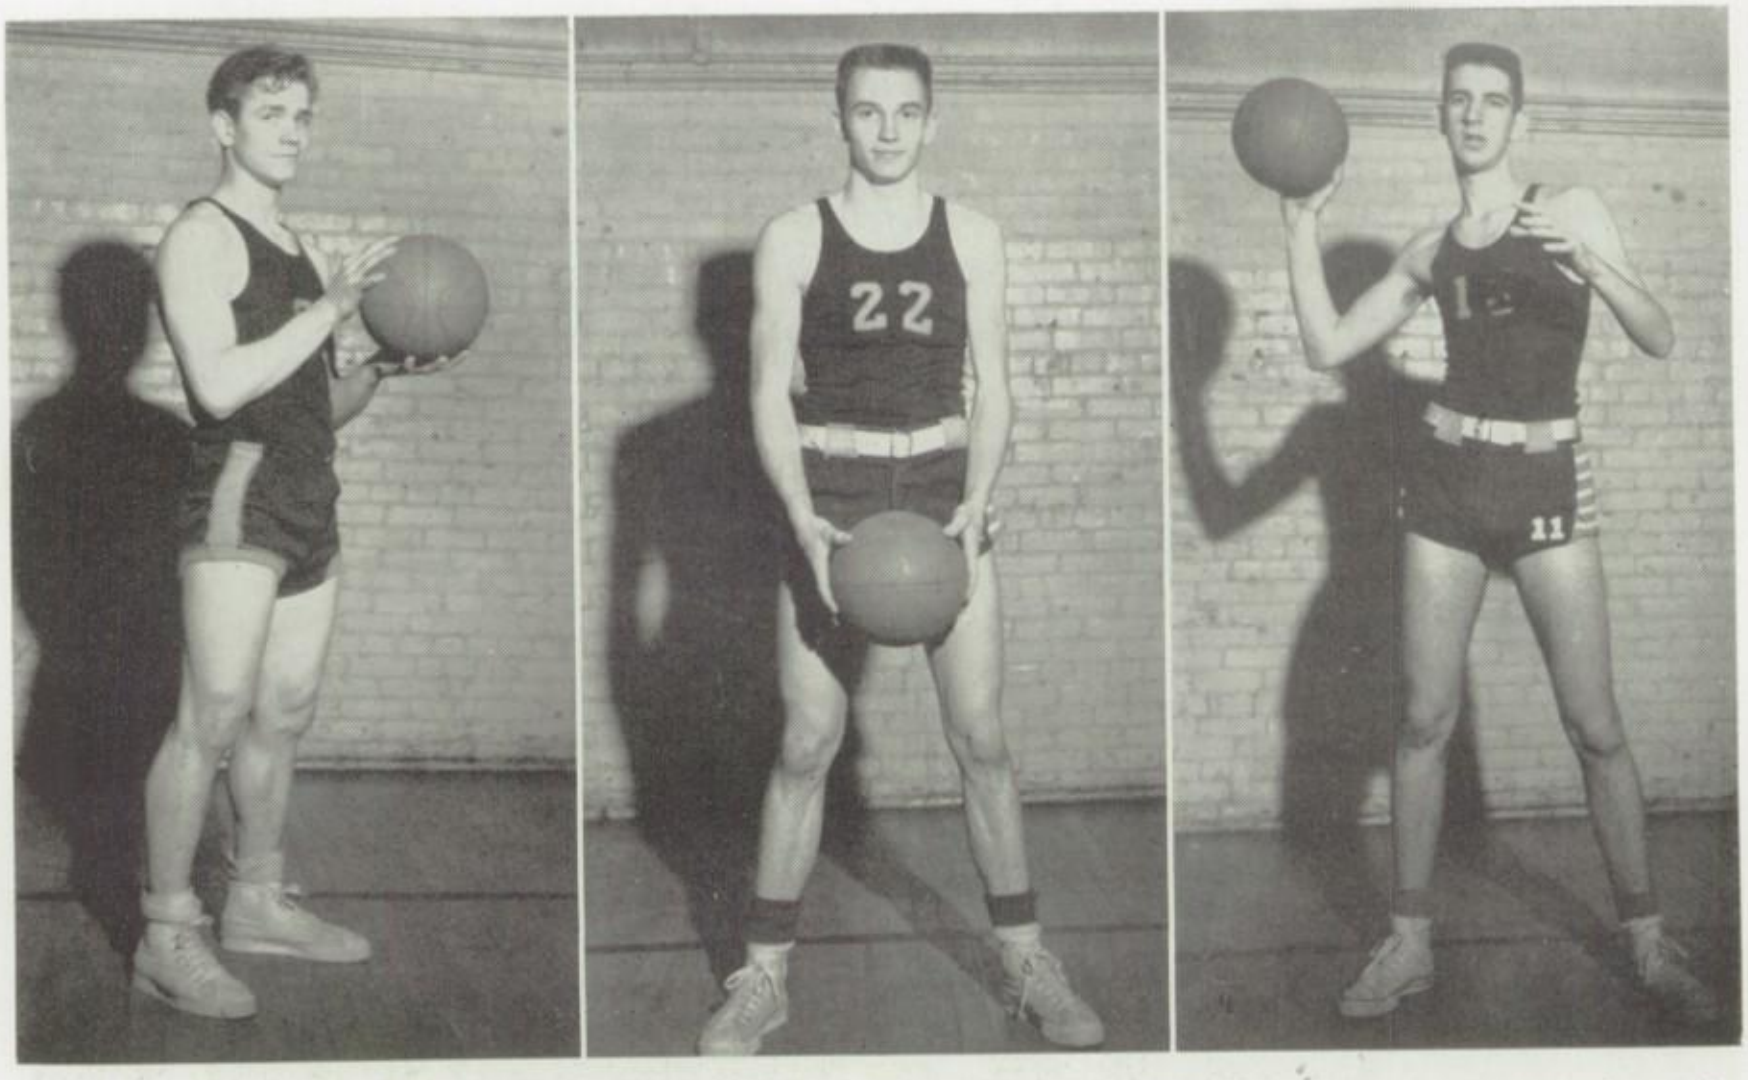
Martin Goes Up for Basket

Here we see Dave Martin contributing two points to L.C.'s victory over North Central, as he puts in a driving lay-in. Pelleberg of N.C. tries desperately to check him while Parker (12), Perko, and James wait for a possible rebound.

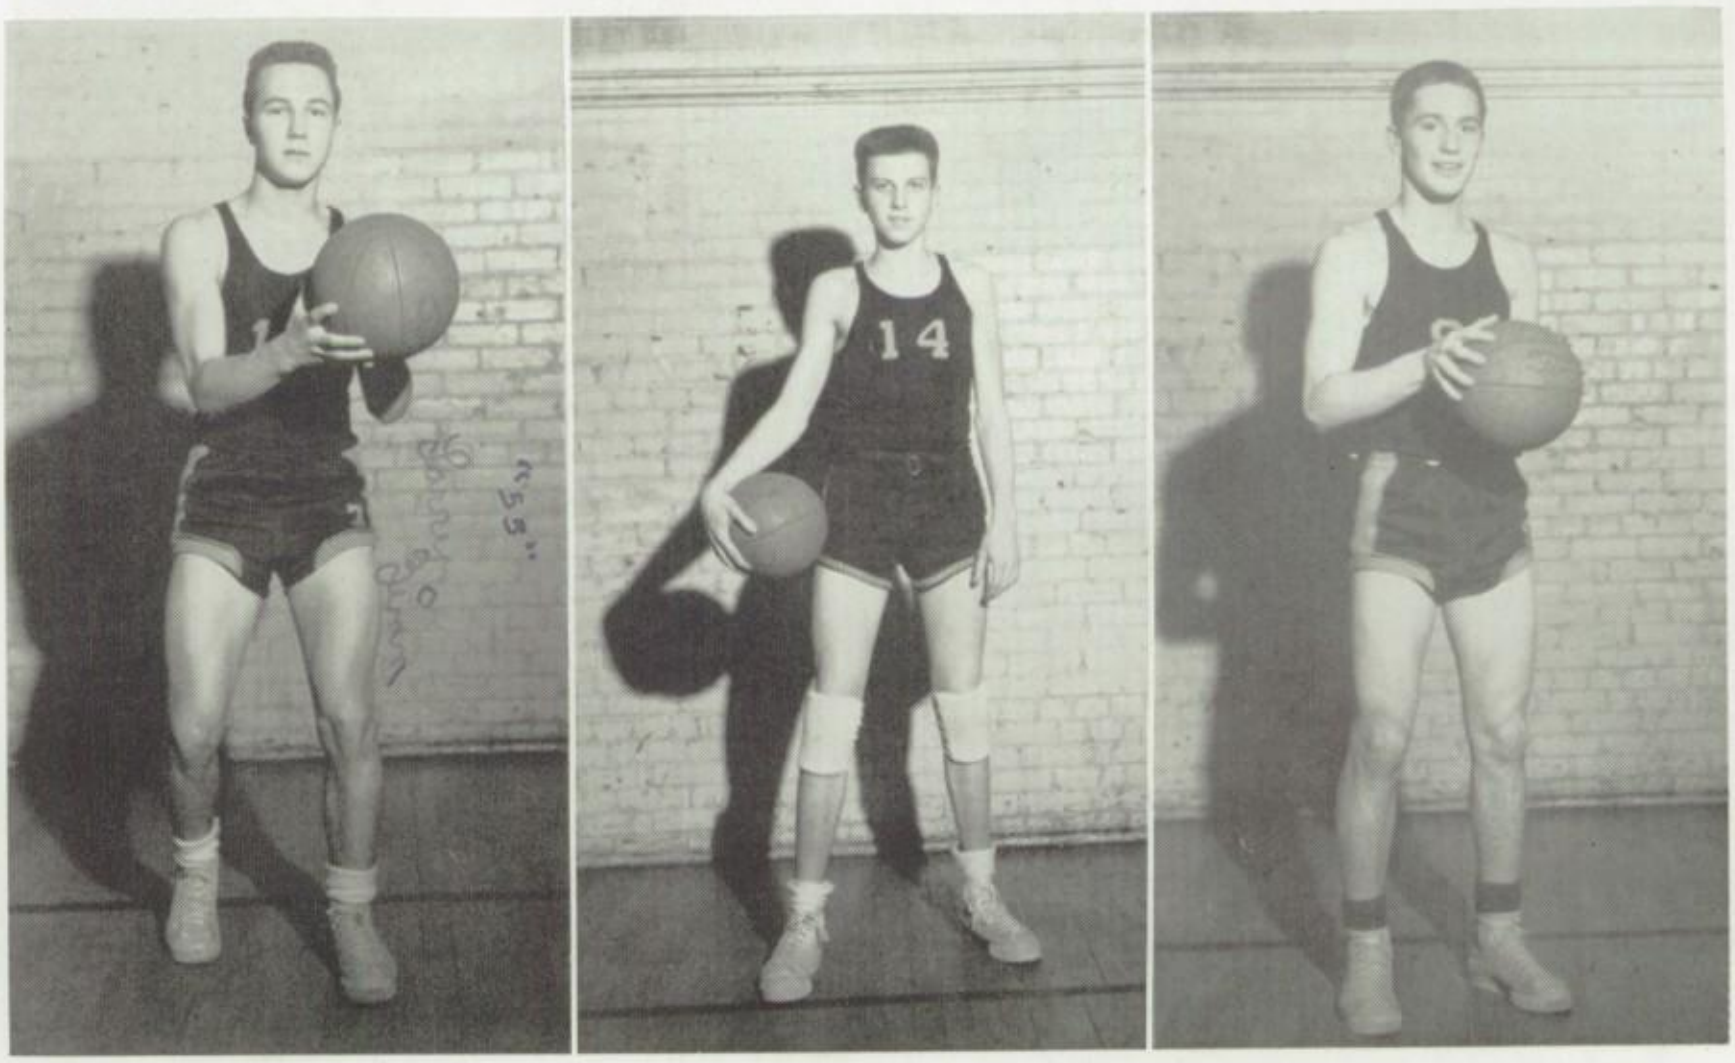
Morris Scores With Lay-in

Bobby Morris goes up for one of his many lay-ins that helped make him the city's top scorer. Paul Perko (7) and Bill Parker (12) come in fast while West Valley players look on.



Art James—Although a newcomer on the team as a sophomore, he constantly intercepted enemy passes. With his fine push shots, he will be a big threat to the opposing team next year. Bob Morris—Bob was the high scoring forward for L.C. Making a good percentage of his shots, he guided the team's offense and defense. Paul Perko—This lanky center scored well for L.C. and added backboard strength to the Bengal five. Paul's hook shots and ability to take the rebounds proved him a valuable player.

Larry Zinn—This freshman forward was a top notch substitute for the Tigers. Great things are expected of him next season. Bill Parker—As a hard-working forward, he added to the backboard strength. Bill furnished the additional height and played consistent ball all season. Dave Martin—This speedy guard will be back again next year. Always "on the ball," Dave showed smooth floor work, and was a "sparkplug" of the team.



Kittens End Up in Cellar

The 1952 Kittens played on-and-off ball this season, winning nine and losing ten games throughout the season. Showing some promise for next year were Doug Storey, John Olson, and Hiram Clark.

Those Lively Yell Queens

Active L.C. cheerleaders encouraged pep and enthusiasm at games and cons throughout the year. They introduced new yells and songs which inspired better school spirit.

Joe Cornelius, a junior, won a good share of his matches last spring. He brought his average down to 82. John Bigelow, a junior, worked hard to improve his game; he brought his score down to 85. John was an outstanding putter. Bob Doss, a junior, although not a regular member of the squad, is expected to aid the team this year. He was able to practice a great deal during the year, as he worked part time at the driving range. Tim Hay, a junior, consistently improved his game. Tim was No. 3 on the team, winning some of his matches and playing a few rounds in the low 70's.

Ron Mueller, a senior, is expected to win a good share of his matches this spring. Bob Morris, a senior, improved his game to the point that he was one of the outstanding players of the squad. Last summer, Bob, being a member of the Spokane Public Links Team and the Spokane Junior Golf Team, traveled to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Champagne, Illinois, to play in the tournaments. He is consistently long and straight driver. John Halin, who graduated last year, was the No. 1 player on the squad. He was the medalist in the Inland Empire High School Tournament last spring. John also made the trip with Bob to Milwaukee. Playing close to par most of the time, he was the "big gun" on the Tiger squad. Bob Sawyer, a junior, should hold down one of the positions of the team this year. He shoots in the high 80's, aided by very straight, though not exceptionally long drives.

Girl Golfers Finish Second

The Girls' Golf team, under the supervision of Miss Virginia Danke, came in second to North Central last spring.

Girls' Team Places Fourth in Inland Empire

Badminton Team Defeats West Valley

ADVERTISING

FORTY YEARS AGO

Back in June, 1912, four business establishments whose ads appear in this book had displays in the monthly Journal. They were: John W. Graham and Company, C. W. Hill Printing Company, Shaw and Borden, and Sartori Jewelers. Forty years ago advertisers were politicians, hardware stores, cafes, sporting goods centers, and printing companies. Pocket knives were sold for 15 cents and a big roast beef or roast pork sandwich with gravy was sold for 5 cents at Lindsey's Cafe. Friday night movies cost 10 cents at the New Spokane Theatre.
